

AUGUST 2-7, 2020

“The institute was a wonderful experience at a unique location. You provided relevant activities and usable information that could be taken back to the classroom and immediately implemented.”

We welcome sixteen K-12 teachers to experience a unique, one-week professional development institute at CMU’s Biological Station on Beaver Island.

Registration for this experience (including ferry service to and from the island, one week of room and board at the CMU Biological Station, and workshop expenses) is $900. A $100 non-refundable deposit is due my May 1, with remaining costs due by July 15. Participants will be responsible for travel to and from Charlevoix, Michigan.

Supplemental funding for teachers from the Macomb ISD and counties in the Great Lakes Bay Region are available. Those seeking support will be asked to complete an additional essay question describing their goals for attending the institute.

Please begin your application by April 17, 2020 at the URL below.

Questions? Contact our institute director, Dr. Troy Hicks <troy.hicks@cmich.edu>.
